Check-out by 12 pm

- The camper is required to be aware of and comply with: the opening/closing times of Nomad Argentario; quiet hours; and the entrance/exit times clearly indicated on the notice board displayed at the Reception.
- The allocation of pitches is the exclusive responsibility of the Management and is carried out based on service needs. It is prohibited to move from the assigned pitch without permission from the Management.
- It is prohibited to install camping equipment such as tents or temporary structures on the pitches, as well as to dig holes or alter the state of the area.
- When using the individual services available at the pitch or the shared services, guests must take care not to damage any facilities or equipment. Additionally, maintaining order and cleanliness is essential. The use of electrical services at the pitch is the exclusive responsibility of the guest, who must use cables, joints, and connections in accordance with legal standards and avoid any hazards to people and property during use.

- The camper is required to respect and not damage the vegetation such as plants, flowers, and greenery present on the pitches and in the common areas. They must keep their pitch clean and tidy, only using their own barbecue for cooking, and dispose of waste in the appropriate containers, following the recycling guidelines.
- Minors are not allowed to stay at Nomad Argentario unless accompanied by an adult who assumes responsibility and provides a delegation from the guardian.
- Pets are allowed at Nomad Argentario, provided they are not noisy or aggressive, kept on a leash at all times, and under the owner's supervision within the assigned pitch. All dogs must be microchipped and registered with the local dog registry in the region of residence.
- It is forbidden to keep the camper's engine running while stationed at the pitch or to produce disturbing noise.
- During quiet hours, the use of vehicles, bicycles, and motorcycles is prohibited. Radios, televisions, and smartphones should be kept at a low volume, and children should be supervised by adults at all times.
- The Management is not responsible for theft of money or items, nor for damages to cars, caravans/vans/campers, nor for natural damages (falling branches, pinecones, etc.), or accidents related to circulation that occur within the Nomad Argentario camper park or the unsupervised parking area. Each camper is responsible for safeguarding their own belongings.
- We kindly ask guests to leave toilets, sinks, showers, and washbasins always clean. Please be cautious and pay attention to the related signage during cleaning: access to the areas being cleaned is prohibited during this time.

- Early departures and/or late arrivals cause significant disruption to the organization and damage to the Administration. In such cases, the Management is forced to charge the entire reserved period, even if not fully utilized.
- No reductions or discounts are provided in the event that the pitch holder is absent for a certain period of time compared to the original booking.
- In the case of booking cancellation, the cancellation will be accepted exclusively according to the cancellation policy agreed upon by the customer at the time of booking.
- Non-refundable rate: The customer is required to pay the full amount of the stay, discounted by the percentage applicable to this type of promotion, at the time of booking. The non-refundable rate does not allow for any reimbursement in case of cancellation or no-show. The penalty applied will be 100% of the amount accepted during the booking process.
- The Management reserves the right to modify this regulation at any time. The updated version will be displayed at the entrance of Nomad Argentario Camper Park on the designated notice board to ensure all guests have the best experience possible.
